During its one hundred years, Elmhurst College has seen many young adults enter and has seen many bright, aware minds leave. In this past decade, in Kranz Hall to the Science Center, Elmhurst College has helped people learn to meet the demands of an ever-changing society. The Elmhurst campus has seen in this past one hundred years; hundreds of faces . . .

Homecoming '70

1970 Homecoming was a weekend packed tight with activities to interest anyone. Things got off the ground on Friday and flew until Sunday. Friday afternoon, Dick Gregory psych-ed-out students and faculty alike. Bill Ussleton and his jazz combo finished off the afternoon. Friday night, Phil Cohran and the Artistic Heritage Ensemble performed in the Chapel.

Few organizations managed to pull together a float. Brotherhood of Preators took first prize with the cheerleaders receiving second. Saturday afternoon, the battling Bluejays hosted Carroll College.

Gloria Waad was crowned 1970 Homecoming Queen.

The dance was held at the O'Harepart Hatel.
Jayce Lee was a freshman court member.

The First One Hundred Years

The Centennial Year began with an opening convocation given by the former Secretary of State, Stuart Udall. Highlights of the year included concerts performed by the classical guitarist, Carlos Montoya; band leader, Doc Severinsen, and his choral group, The Brothers and the Sisters; and folk singer Glenn Yarbrough. All of these were sponsored by the Campus Life and Social Life Committees, along with the Centennial Committee. Further activities were: a performance of the Broadway play, Stop the World I want to Get Off, a presentation of "Will Rogers, USA" conducted by actor James Whitmore, and lectures given by Ashley Montague and Dr. Harlan Hatcher. Former Assistant Secretary of the Interior, Carl Klein, spoke at the Business Community Centennial Breakfast on February 20. Spring events centered around lectures delivered by crusader Ralph Nader and author Paul Ehrlich and concerts performed by the Preservation Hall Jazz Band and Peter Nero. Two other activities marked the spring scene, the Centennial Ball on April 30 and the celebration of an all-day Mayfest on May 2.

All of these events served to commemorate the founding of Elmhurst College — one hundred years ago. The history of the school includes three distinct periods: the proseminary stage, the academy and junior college stage, and the college stage. On December 16, 1871, the first president, Carl F. Kranz, and fourteen students arrived in Elmhurst to begin the proseminary age which was to last until 1919. The building used to house the first students has since been divided and is now used as housing for present day professors. The first new building, Kranz Hall, was built in 1873 and is the oldest building on campus. Old Main was erected in 1878. Dr. Daniel Irion took over the presidency in 1887. His administration became the longest in the history of the college — 32 years. With his resignation the college moved into its second stage of development with the Rev. Herman Schick as president. Dr. Schick resigned in 1924 and it was then that the college was launched into its final stage of development. It was H. Richard Niebuhr who was selected to lead the effort to change Elmhurst into a full four-year liberal arts college. The gymnasium was constructed in 1928, and in its day was considered very modern. In 1928, Timothy Lehmann was appointed to the presidency. It was under his administration that Elmhurst became co-educational. With the appointment of Dr. Henry Dinkmeyer as president, the college advanced a new building program, and Dinkmeyer and Lehmann Halls became realities. The story of the college after President Dinkmeyer's death is really a story of the present. It involves two of the chapel, Niebuhr Hall, the College Union, the Science Center, and the new library to open in the fall. In 1971, President Kleckner resigned, and the man to fill the spot in Elmhurst's one hundred and first year will begin the story of the future.

Opening events of the Centennial Year commemoration were marked by the convocation given by Stuart Udell.

President Klecker and the president of the Alumni Association, Ken Boker, stood by the plaque commemorating the first 100 years.

Mayfest Moves Inside

A Mayfest celebration was planned for Sunday, May 2, as another part of the Centennial Year Commemoration. Some of the events that had been planned were a band concert, an art fair, colliope music, and games in the Mall. Because of an unexpected storm, many of the activities were cancelled and the celebration was moved inside. However, the "day of fun" was not completely lost for the 250 students, faculty, and parents that attended. A reception held in honor of Dr. Kleckner included a refreshment line set up in the Union Lounge. Guided tours of the campus were led by girls in long, old-fashioned dresses. Accordion music, a balloon dart throw, and a white elephant sale were among those activities held in the Union.

Barb Perkis, Margie Eschenbrenner, Bonnie Allen, and Margie Tomasek were Lehmanns entry for the Bed Race.

At 1:30 on April first, the Festival of Fools began with the arrival of the Joker. Out of the sky in a helicopter came the Joker (actually Mr. Swords). Next came to Bed Race around the mall, which was won by Tim Jans, Rick Magnall, Chuck Forester, Jim Fliss, and Ellen Shimwell. Ping Pong balls were then thrown off the Union roof for the ping pong pickup. The pie eating contest was won by George Wallies, who received $15 and some Alka Seltzer. The great finale of the day was a pie throw . . .

The next night, Friday, found the sub-basement a lively Las Vegas. Through the original and generous donations of the staff and faculty, students won anything from Dr. Kleckner serving dinner in the cafeteria (steaks and wine, not to mention the huge banana split dessert) to laundry service by Mrs. Keating.

Saturday was an Old Town Revue, complete with peanuts to throw on the floor or to the people next to you.

The Festival of Fools was a complete success, with the most thanks and congratulations going to Kathy Duzen. The money made by the week-end totaled $612, which went to the Student Emergency Loan Fund.

In halting English, Montoya explains the two encore numbers he performed.

Carlos Montoya

The music of Spanish gypsies and Flamenco dances was created in the Chapel September 30 by the nimble fingers of Carlos Montoya.

For one and a half hours, this guitar virtuoso captivated his audience with his skill. Montoya did the arranging of all the tunes, which were all old songs of the gypsy caravans. Several Spanish dances were played, the most famous being "Cuadro Flamenco." For an encore, Montoya did his most famous flamenco number.

Patti Miller

One of the outstanding performers sponsored by the Harbinger this year was the performance of Patti Miller. She presented an outstanding vocal performance featuring folk songs held in the sub basement.

Glenn Yarbrough Sings the Music of Love

The music of Glen Yarbrough — regardless of whether he is singing “Frankie and Johnny” or “A Young Girl of Sixteen”, is the music of love. While he is full of humor and good will, the satirist performed one of the best concerts Elmhurst had this year. This was one of E.C.’s great events celebrating the centennial year.

Will Rogers, U.S.A.

Will Rogers, one of America's most popular and beloved commentators, came to Elmhurst with his drawl and his witty observations. The famed movie actor James Wit-more gave a one-man show where he portrayed Will Rogers. This Centennial Committee sponsored performance was another great for Elmhurst's Centennial Year.

The One Hundreth Commencement

On Sunday, May 30, Elmhurst College conferred the Bachelor of Arts degree to 450 students, the largest graduating class in the history of the one-hundred year old college. The Centennial Year Commencement was held in the Mall.

Dr. Sharvey G. Umbeck, president of Knox College, Galesburg, Ill., gave the commencement address. The Reverend Kenneth B. Smith, pastor of the Church of the Good Shepard in Chicago, delivered the Baccalaureate Address.

Adelphae

The Sisterhood of Adelphae is a social-service organization. This year's officers were President Paul-ette Augustine, Vice-president Kris Hermanson, Sec-etary Robin Calkins, and Treasurer Fae Zuckerman. Once again the Adelphae held their annual Ugly Man Dance at the Pizza Hut. On the service side of their organization, they collected for the Heart Fund Drive and had a Halloween Party for children at Emerson School.

Omicron Delta

The purpose of Omicron Delta is to promote the attributes of finer womanhood in academic, social, religious and moral standards and to better serve the society we are now facing. Officers are: President Angie McDuffee, Vice-President Alice Opryszek, Sec. Julie Aldrich, Treas. Carole Carlson, and Historian Lynea Wallberg. Service projects for the year included trick or treat candy given to St. Mary's School for the Mentally Retarded, a visit to the Great Lakes Naval Hospital, clothing drive, Muscular Dystrophy Drive, and a Walk for Development. Social activities were a faculty and administration coffee hour, semi-formal dinner, Annual Founders Day Dinner, and helping organize and participate in the Centennial Year celebration.

Praetors

The Brotherhood of Praetors has been on campus now for four years, and have definitely made a name for themselves. Known for their strong Intermural participation, and their frequent parties, they attract many new freshmen. This year's pledge class numbered eighteen. With the assistance of Mr. Schmidt, this group will be around for some time.

TKE

Under President Joe Smetana, the Nu Zeta chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon had many projects, besides just having a lot of fun. The group helped raise money for March of Dimes, cleaned up a railroad for their public service weekend, and finally replaced the grass in the mall where their homecoming decoration had left a "ghost." They also held their first annual Red Carnation Ball. The members are, left to right — Row 1: Mike Chapman, Jim Roberts, Eric Keller, Mike Kitun, Marty Rief, Mike Denton, Dave Caraker, Andy Szymonski, Jim Bailis, Kevin Kerrigan. Row 2: Bob Jewell, Tom Spriggs, Don Simley, Bob Stott, Blair Woodworth, Tim Marsett, John Avila, Kirk Phillips. Row 3: Steve Suslik, Rich Kirkbride, Frank Latoria, and Gordon Leeks.

Squires

This year's Squire officers were: President Paul Lancaster, Vice-president Mark Buck, Secretary Wally Trosen, and Treasurer Roger Dahlstrom. The organization had a pledge class of twenty, under the supervision of Jim Quilty. Besides their annual Boat Trip in the Spring, the Squires had many service projects. These included working for the March of Dimes and Muscular Distrophy, and a Christmas party for children.

Hiz—I Brothers

The growing brotherhood of Hiz-I Brothers gave life to Dinkmeyer Lounge this year as it held numerous dances, all successful. The largest and best remembered was the Sweetheart Dance, where Anita Bynum was chosen as the Hiz-I Queen. The outlook for next year is a bright future filled with even bigger and better social events planned.

The Elmbark is Elmhurst College's weekly newspaper. It covers all the ideas and events that take place in our college community. Besides having the regular financial problems faced by almost all organizations, the Elmbark found a slight news shortage. But when the paper did come out, it was full of life as it is at E.C. The staff included editor-in-chief Dinah Simmen, Associate editor Don Bizer, feature editor Joanne Martin, literary editor Dan Voltz, sports editor Dave Aggen, business manager Julie Moulthrop, and photography editor Steve Schultz.

The Elms had a rough time of it this year due to a tight budget and an important year. Editor-in-chief, Deb Biersach, was backed up by a staff of experienced hard-workers. The Year was done by Dave Cavallo, the Activities by Jonna Mihalic, Seniors and Faculty worked diligently by Nancy Schultz, Underclassmen by Peg Weston and Marianna VanTellingen, copy editor Sue Reel and Index editor Kathy Koma. The purpose of a yearbook is to provide a place to store old, pleasant memories, to look back into in years to come and remember Elmhurst. This year's staff did its best to provide that type of book to the Elmhurst community.

WRSE covers campus, national and community events

WRSE-FM is now in its eighth year of FM broadcast service to the campus and community. This non-commercial, educational radio station is operated entirely by students. Besides all home and away sport events, the station offers classical music programs, world, community, and campus news, progressive and underground music, plus campus ideas and feelings. Dick Cullom is Station Manager, Dan Smith Program Director, Mike Fitzgerald Chief Engineer, Vince Pinelli Business Director, Judy Crews News Director, Greg Black and John Kurth Production Directors, and Dr. Schmidt Faculty Advisor.

CLC — Joint Council

The last tournament of the year for the EC Debate team was the Illinois Forensics Association Tournament at Illinois State University, at Normal. Competing in a switch sides, power matched tournament after the first six rounds the team of John Meiners and Bob Karlicek earned a 5-1 record. This made the Elmhurst team the top seeded team of the eight that made it to the quarterfinals.

Defending the affirmative side against Eastern, the Elmhurst team was defeated by a 2-1 vote count. However, both team members were named to the list of the ten top speakers of the tournament.

S.T.O.P.

With Cyril Colonius as chairman, STOP sponsored a "Conference for Life" at Tower Hill Camp, this year. The purpose of this organization whose full name is Students to Terminate Over-population and Pollution, is to help Elmhurst students see and examine these issues in our society today. STOP hopes to foster new interest in planning ecological action programs, in reevaluating the Common Course section on environment, and in redefining our life styles.

Student Development Center

The history of the center, a place for students to be themselves, began as an idea in a class of students led by Dean Durst and the now Center Director, Dave Moulthrop. The class was dealing with empathy training and saw the center as a possible means for meeting the needs of the campus and its people. The center offers an informal meeting place for all facets of the college community. It also is a proactive agency to change and evaluate procedures, policies, and practices of the college. The SDC is for everyone at the college.

Glee Club

Under the direction of Mr. Austin, the Men's Glee Club sang at many functions, including Centennial Ball and Mayfest. This year's president was Bob Ullman.

Polyhymnia

This year's Polyhymnia officers were: president Judy Kalkbrenner, business manager Karen Kieca, assistant business manager Sharon Dotson, secretary Mary Jerome, publicity Barb Lewis and Karen Dauster, and librarians Nancy Gardner and Sharon Joseph. The group was directed by Mr. Westermeyer.

Bill Usselton at Homecoming

Under the direction of Mr. Sorenson, the Elmhurst band gave two concerts, besides playing at all home football and basketball games. In spring, the band went on their annual tour, this year to St. Louis for two days. During the half-time of Senior High Day, the band sponsored the Joliet Central High School Marching band to come and perform for the Elmhurst crowd. The Midwest Intercollegiate Jazz Festival was also a band-sponsored event. This year's officers were: president Barb Lewis, vice president George Jacobs, secretary Kathy Goeke, librarian Deb Krauth, and quartermaster Rich West.

Termed by the Music Theater Guide as a witty, stylish cartoon of the Jazz Age, "The Boy Friend," uses the flapper type lyrics and music of the Twenties to spoof the old-style operetta. Using the age-old line of "rich girl meets poor boy," the production features eight of Wilson's musical hits during the Roaring '20's.

The cast for "the Boy Friend" is as follows: Linda Schaeffer as Polly with Peter Bliznick playing opposite as Tony, Polly's father by Mr. Swords, Maisie played by Renee Jones, Gloria Gutrich as Nancy, Micheal Baily as Bobby VanHuesen, Ron Meyer as Lord Brockhurst, Nancy Meyer as Lady Brockhurst, Alan Wieger as Marcel, Thomas Crutcher as Pierre, Susan Felski as Dulcie, DeeDee McMillon as Hortense, and Carol Mower as Madame Dubonnet.

Cultural — Intellectual Life

*Production of the road show Stop The World I Want to Get Off.

Glenn Yarborough

Will Rogers, USA

The purpose of the Cultural-Intellectual Life Committee of the Union Board is to enhance the cultural and intellectual atmosphere of the college. The 1970 Chairman was Don Bizer and the 1971 Chairman is Sharon Tapp. This committee provides programming in five major areas: 1) Art 2) major productions and Performing artists 3) films 4) speakers and 5) excursions.

The major events programmed for the Centennial Year were the Glenn Yarborough concert on Nov. 1, the road show production of Stop the World I Want to Get Off on Nov. 10, Preservation Hall Jazz Band on March 10, Paul Ehrlich on May 11, and Peter Nero on May 16.

The film program is extensive, with many new films that are quite popular. There also was a list of foreign films. This on activity probably provided more people with something to do than any other event.

To provide an extensive and well-rounded program requires much work. And the committee must depend on the enthusiasm and ideas of any and all Elmhurst students who are interested in seeing this type of programming continue.

Social Life

Harkening to the social needs of the Elmhurst College community, the Social Life Committee of the Union Board each year offers a well rounded program of entertainment to the student body. Its concerts and lecture series includes: Bill Usselton at the Homecoming game, Phil Cohran concert co-sponsored by Black Affairs, Patti Miller concert co-sponsored with the Harbinger, and a pickpocket and magician act, not to mention the great job of sponsoring Festival of Fools.

Another phase of the Social Life Committee is the film program, co-sponsored with Cultural Life. Such films as "Cat Ballou," "Bonnie and Clyde," "Goodbye Colombus," "Candy," and "Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid" made the Science Center Auditorium a busy place.

The 1970 Chairman was June Williams and the 1971 Chairman was Kathy Duzen.

Co-captains Hank Harrison and Jim Evans led the 1970 Bluejays to a 4-5 season mark. In compiling a 4-4 conference record, the Jays finished fifth in the final league standings.

The season started well for the Jays as they trampled North Central 52-13. Augustana was next as the Jays pounced on them 34-13. This was the game where the Jays were most impressive. Another high point of the season was the 12-0 drubbing of Wheaton. That was the first time the Jays had beaten the Crusaders in thirty years.

C.C.I.W. honors were bestowed upon Elmhurst's middle guard Steve Filipski as he was named to the All-Conference team. Steve had 59 tackles and 46 assists with two fumble recoveries. Filipski led a tough defensive unit that was topped by Mike "Doc" Dougherty who had 68 tackles and 48 assists.

The offensive attack was led by Biff Roberts in the quarterback position, and by offensive end Chuck Purdom and halfback Vic Mills. Roberts threw the ball 140 times completing 58 for 881 yards and six touchdowns. All six touchdowns were caught by offensive end Chuck Purdom. Chuck was the team's leading scorer and receiver. He hauled in 23 passes for a total of 383 yards. Vic Mills was the team's leading rusher with 483 yards.

With two-thirds of the season gone, the eleven black football players went on strike. Elmhurst lost their last three games without the proven notables as defensive end Paul "Duke" Thornton (53 tackles, 17 assists) and John Spooner (30 points and 359 yards rushing).

Coach Wendall Harris is looking forward to a better season next year. The combination of an experienced ball club, a unified ball club and the wishbone "T" attack should mean a tougher team for 1971.

Helping out the regular cheerleaders far ane gome — EC's slightly irregular cheerleaders: Radney Moore, Dan Richards, Mark Beck, David Holmes, and Mike Daugherty.

Cheerleaders

Throughout the 1970-1971 athletic season, the cheerleaders led the Jays to many thrilling victories and some heartbreaking defeats. These talented girls capably held down their job all through the year after going through rigorous judging at try-outs based on execution of cheers and gymnastic stunts, as well as their ability to work well in team effort. The cheerleaders had practice five days a week, and with these extra hours came the recognition of a great squad. Fond memories will come to mind when the girls think of the time when six loyal EC fans helped them cheer, when the cheerleaders float took second place for Homecoming, and when the flying Blue Goose led them up north to visit Albert Lea. But, nothing will replace the memory of the closeness and cooperation these six girls experience among themselves.

Season 12-11

Six returning veterans formed the nucleus for a successful Elmhurst Team for 1970-71. A 12-11 mark was a slight improvement over the 10-13 record the team recorded the year before. In the tough C.C.I.W. Conference, the Jays finished in fifth place with a 7-9 mark.

Jim Bell led the team in scoring with an average of 14.5 points per game, while tallying up a total of 334 points. He was followed closely by team captain Cal Saunders who hit to the tune of 14.3 points a game. Dwaine Hoff, a 6-5 junior college transfer, also ended up the season with points in the double figures with 12.2. The Jays as a ball club scored 78.4 points a game, but their opponents managed to throw in an average of 79 points a game.

The rebounding this year was dominated by 6-3 sophomore Cal Saunders and Dwaine Hoff, who supplied needed muscle for the Jays this year. Cal garnered 390 rebounds for an average of 16.9 per game. His conference average was 17.1; it was the top in the conference. Hoff pulled in a total of 209 rebounds for an average of 9 a game.

Junior Jim Brusveen set a school record for assists during the year as he dished out 141 passes for buckets. Hoff followed with 80 assists.

Greg Oates, a 6-3 freshman, shot .913 from the free throw line while seeing limited action his freshman year. Saunders followed, shooting .725 from the Charity Line. Sophomore Jim Trench led the team in shooting percentage with a .544 from the floor.

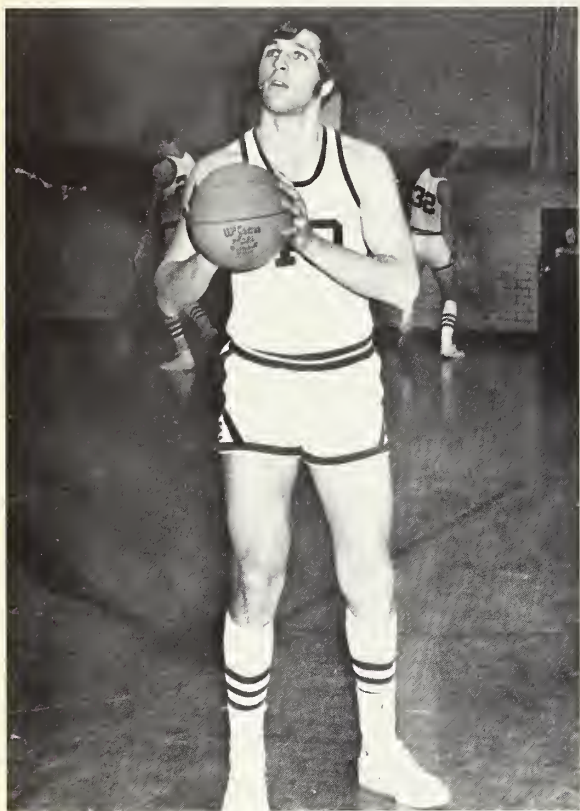

The Most Valuable Player honors were bestowed to Cal Saunders for his great year.

Jays fans can look forward to an exciting next year, as the whole team will be back.

Well on its way to being a perennial wrestling power, Elmhurst continued building in 1971 the strongest type of team that was a dream to EC wrestling fans two years ago.

Coach Richard Ulrich led his team to an impressive 8-1 dual meet record. The Jays also finished first in three tournaments, the Lake Forest Quad, the NAIA District 20 tournament, and the fourteen-team North Central Invitational. One of the highlights of the season was the strong second place finish in the CCIW, which was held at Elmhurst this year.

This year three of the EC matmen travelled to North Carolina for the NAIA National Meet. Don Kessler pinned once and lost his second match. Same for Don Stuart. Ron Stuart won his first two, but had to default his third match because of an injury.

Team leaders this year were Ron Stuart, who broke the school record for the most wins in a season (25) and most consecutive wins (21). Don Kessler broke the school record for most team points (105) and pins (14). This season's team captain was Ron Stuart. Most Valuable went to Don Kessler, Most Improved to Mark Spetly and Ed Jones, and Coach's Award to John Tritt.

Coach Ulrich is looking forward to next season with optimism. None of this season's members are seniors and a fine crop of recruits are expected to add more strength to the already powerful EC team.

Ed Jones, Freshman 177 lbs.

Hank Harrison, junior 190 lbs.

Charlotte Scott

This season, the Women's Tennis Team, coached by Miss Hackman, earned themselves a four-two season record. Losing to only Wheaton and North Central, the ladies in their short, white uniforms beat: Aurora, Olivet, Concordia, and Lake Forest. The team also played in two tournaments. Charlotte Scott made it to the quarter finals in the Millikin Invitational, and to the finals in the Chicago District Invitational. Both times she lost to a North Central opponent.

Charlotte Scott, the lead player, ended the season with a personal 5-1 record. Next came Cindy Fordyce with a 4-2, and Debbie Krauth with a 5-0. The girls made a fine showing this year, and plan on an even better season in '72.

Intermurals

Many EC students have complained in the past about nothing to do on campus. This year, however, more people participated in the Intermural program than ever before. The reason for this is very simple; the program is exactly what the students want. This year's program was a sure success.

The I.M. program has branched off from the usual football, volleyball, basketball, and softball. It included such things as an Interim basketball Tournament and Intermural Track Meet, not to mention the

I.M. Wrestling meet. Also sponsored were ping pong and pool tournaments, and the excursion to the fight of the century between Ali and Fraiser.

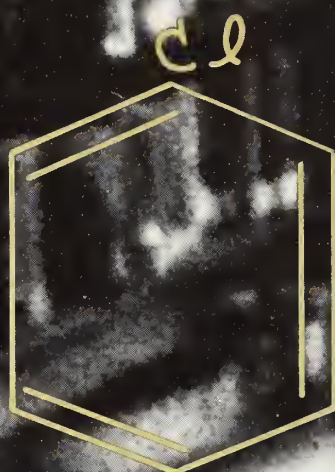

The Intermural program falls under the auspices of the Athletic Life Committee, a member of the Union Board. This year's Chairman was David Greenstien, who, along with Faculty Advisor Wence Cunningham, did a terrific job. Debbie Krauth was head of Women's Intermurals and Butch Brister had the position of Commissioner of Officials.

Convocation Speech, 1971

"Thank you for your wonderful efforts and cooperation in the past. I know so many of you personally that it will be a sad day for me when I say goodbye at the end of this academic year. You people and Elmhurst College mean so very much to me. My thoughts and prayers will be with you as I undertake my new responsibilities at Chapman College in California. Godspeed!"

Donald Kleckner, President of Elmhurst College

Opening Convocation Speech, 1970

"Yes, this is our Centennial year. It is a time for reflection, introspection, and projection.

Speech to Faculty, 1962

"May we have a deep concern for the unique qualities of each person, qualities which make him responsible, but independent; courageous, but gentle; not finished, but perfecting. What I am speaking about is the ability to live and deal effectively with people, the respect for human personality, and the preservation of the dignity of the individual.

Convocation Speech to Freshmen, 1965

"Degrees and credits do not necessarily make an educated man. To me, the educated man continues to learn, brings creativity to his task, reasons coherently, communicates effectively, works well with people, and operates within a set of moral values."

Chemistry

The Chemistry department grew this year from four to five instructors. The new additions were Dr. Beck (Organic) to replace Mr. Fogler, and Dr. Ophardt (Inorganic). The Chemistry department offers work-study programs during Interim to some large companies in the Chicago area. It also offers a well-rounded chemical education to its own majors, along with Biology majors and student nurses.

Physics

Mr. Theodore Holliday, chairman of the Department

The Physics department may be small, but it opens the door to energy and movement for Elmhurst students. Along with the Physics majors, Biology and Chemistry students can also be seen in the basement of the Science Center listening intently to Mr. Holliday and Dr. Haugsnes.

Dr. Jack Haugsnes

Mr. John E. Bohnert

Geography

Dr. Karl A. Robert, Chairman of the department

Mr. Paul F. Ries

Mr. John Jurjevich

Economics

Dealing with the economic awareness of Elmhurst students, the Economics department offered an Interim course for personal finance. It also offers a variety of upper-level courses to learn how to live effectively in this world of economic problems.

Mr. George A. Thoma, Jr.

Mr. Robert C. Eaton, Chairman of the Department

Mr. Dominic J. Scudiero

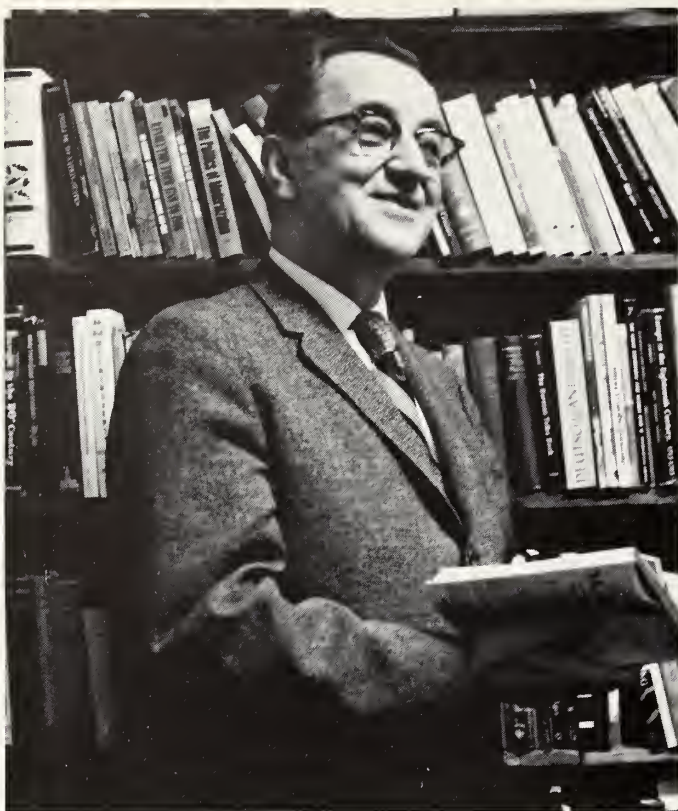

Mr. Richard L. Franks

Combining experience and classroom work, Elmhurst business majors receive a well-rounded education to successfully enter the world of Big Business.

Business Administration

Dr. Rudolf G. Schade, chairman of the department

History

History may deal with the past, but the Elmhurst history department does a fine job of making it relevant to today's world. Under the chairmanship of Dr. Schade, the history department continues to capsule man's saga on earth.

Mr. Neal Blum

Dr. Walter Burdick, Jr.

Mr. David S. Lindberg

Political Science

Dr. Royal Schmidt, chairman of the department

English

Mr. Robert Swords, Mr. Robert Leoder, Dr. Gordon Couchman, Chairmen of the Department

The English Department is one of the largest departments on campus. This was the first year the required course in Literature was changed. Instead of just World Literature, Elmhurst students were given a choice of poetry, novel, or plays.

Spanish

Mrs. Miriam Janes

Dr. Marie Wellington, Chairman of the Department and Mrs. Marian Howie

The Education department is of great importance, since it is the department that teaches teachers, and, without teachers there would be no institutions such as Elmhurst College. This department sees to it that there are qualified people to educate the leaders of the future.

Education

Mrs. Carol Collins

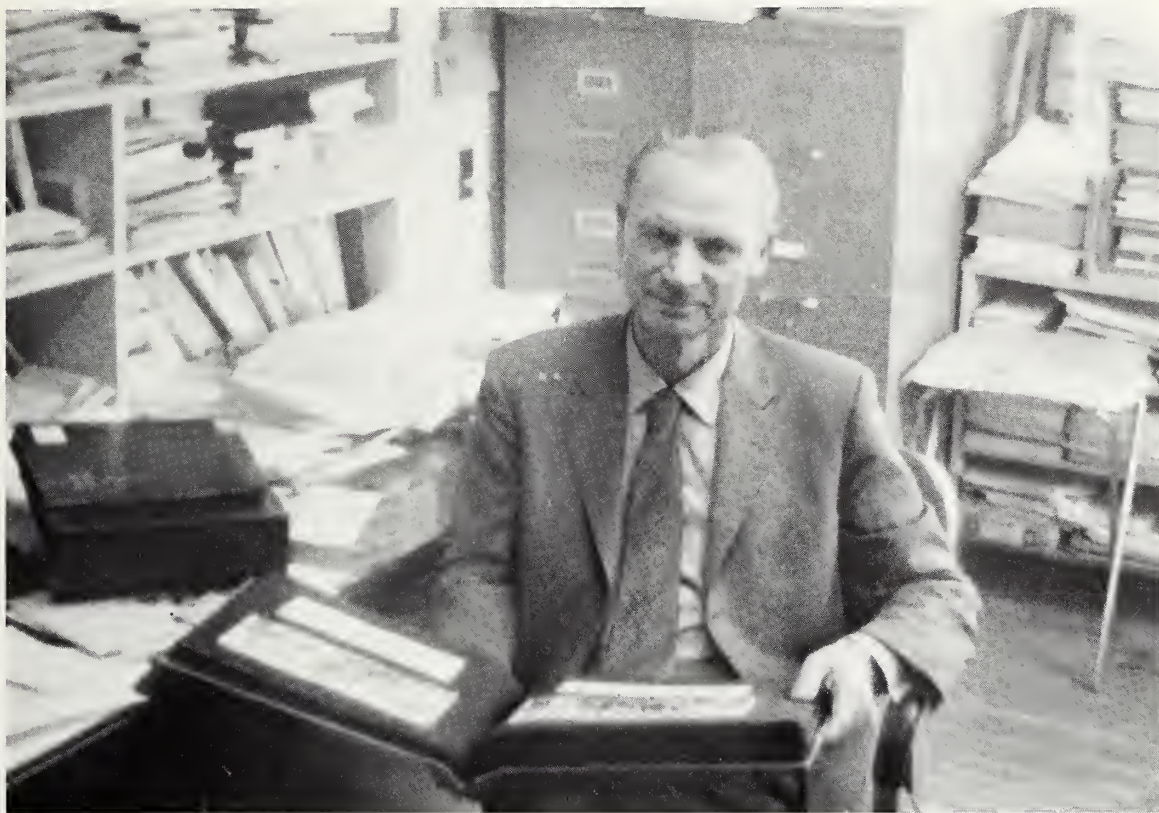

Dr. Peter S. Pierro

Dr. Elmer B. Jacobs, Director of

Coach Richard Ulrich

Miss Carol Frederickson

Coach Harold "Spud" Owen

Coach Jon Hawthorne

Miss Eileen Hackman

Physical Education

The Physical Education Department works hard at getting students away from their desks to attain more than just an academic education. New to the department this year is Miss Carol Frederickson, cheerleading adviser and aquatics instructor. Old to the department is "Spud" Owen whose services will be missed next year.

Coach Walter Schousen, Chairman of the Department

Coach Jerry Andres

Mrs. Maude Meyer

Coach Wendall Harris

Mr. James F. Hayes

Mr. Harrison Y. Smith

Sociology

A social science if ever there was one, the Sociology department deals with man and his society. By instructing people how to deal with people, this department strives to pave the way to a world full of human dignity.

Mr. Eral R. Elledge, Chairman of the department

Afro-American Studies

Afro-American Studies fills a need for the Black students at Elmhurst. Here, they, as well as any white student, can learn about the history of Black people and current Black leaders.

Mr. Joe Gardner

Mr. Micheal Smith

Miss Latham Baskerville

Miss Sandra Jorgenson

Art

By the smell alone, anyone can tell that the third floor of Old Main is the Art department. This department gives Elmhurst students a chance to express themselves in a variety of manners, such as exemplified by the great art exhibits to be seen in the Union Lounge.

Mr. James R. Bode

Dr. Charles D. England

Philosophy

In a changing world, a vital concern is devoted to thought and theory. This is taken care of by the philosophy department through two required courses, and through many upper-level courses.

Dr. William J. Halfter

Dr. Sidney A. Gross

Mrs. Jean Tracy

Mrs. Emily Kirby

Psychology

Dr. Robert F. DeRoo, Chairman of the department

Dr. Jock Holbrook with Betty Hanfelder

Theology

The Theology department has charge of seeing to it that all Elmhurst graduates know about God, not necessarily believing in Him. This department also advises for the draft and for Religious Life.

Dr. Ashley S. Rose

I'd like to express my thanks to all of my staff for helping me get this book out. So many times I thought it would never be finished. I'd also like to express my appreciation and gratitude to John Tritt for putting up with all my frustrations and complaints all year.

A yearbook is a place to store memories. I truly hope that you will appreciate all the love and hard work that went in to this book, when, maybe twenty years from now, you dust it off and say, "Good old what's-his-face, I remember when we..."

Keep Smiling,

Deb Biersach
